Security of funds

Grow Line is a dependable broker and guarantees that the Forex traders constituting its customers enjoy the greatest possible security. Both the investment funds and the personal information of the company's customers are as secure as can be.

Grow Line deploys the full range of cutting-edge resources available to provide the most comprehensive security regime possible.

All data is secured by cutting-edge firewall solutions, secure our IT infrastructure from malicious online attacks.
The SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) protocol guarantees that all our customers' web browsers connect to our server securely.

SSL ensures that all information, particularly login names and passwords, passport info, contact details, and all information on our customers' funds is securely encrypted.

Such information is transmitted through Grow Line's network servers using the SSL encryption protocol.

All financial transactions that take place through Grow Line's network are executed by 1PCI-level transnational payment service providers.

All of Grow Line's trading servers are housed in fully certified SSAE16 datacenters.

All transfer of information between Grow Line's servers and its customers is encrypted using the SSL protocol.

Advanced security infrastructure

The R&D team at Grow Line ensures that the Company's customers enjoy secure, well-protected trading and also guarantees that the website and service platform remain uncompromised.